

It's OK to SPEAK UP!

We want you to feel happy and safe at The Bridge.

If you see, hear or have something happen to you that you feel is not right or does not make you feel happy or safe you can tell someone about it.

You can:

Speak to a staff member that you know and tell them why you are not happy.

Speak to a Coordinator or Manager at The Bridge to let them know what's happening.

Or you can contact the General Manager of your service.

You can choose someone you trust and ask for their help to talk to The Bridge.

Call the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission. Phone: 1800 035 544

Call STOPline to let them know about it.
Phone: 1300 304 550

